

FUN-raising Inspiration

Want to fundraise but don't know where to start? Everybody needs a little inspiration sometimes. Here are some ideas to get you started:

Host a non-uniform day. It's a classic school fundraiser that works, remember to ask permission first.

Create your own walking event, on school grounds or join a local group.

Release your inner Mary Berry and host a classic bake sale or fancy afternoon tea. Invite everyone, invite Concern!

Whether you're a 'sporty' school or just love sports. Why not try a sponsored school's sports challenge, or ask for a donation at the 'gate'?

Start a teacher Challenge.
Can you persuade your teachers to take part in a student versus teacher challenge? Dodge ball anyone?

Launch a Concern Pop-Up Shop in your own school. Ask everyone to bring their preloved items and sell them.

Turn your school hall into a cinema. Sell tickets, popcorn, and treats too - yum

Do a prize draw, raffle, or auction with exciting prizes. Win a teacher homework pass - pick a teacher to do YOUR homework!

Game on! Are you a gamer?
Can you spot a fundraising opportunity?

Top Tips

- Ask permission, don't rush it
- Do you need a risk assessment for school fundraising activities?
- Post on social media, get media permissions
- Return all money, check school policy
- Thank your sponsors
- Have fun

Return all sponsor forms and money to your school

- Don't take on more than you can handle
- No street or door to door collections (police permits needed)
- Don't count money on your own
